

REMARKS

The Office Action of May 16, 2007 has been reviewed and the Examiner's comments carefully considered. Independent claim 1 and dependent claims 3, 8 and 15 have been modified by the foregoing Amendment, and no new matter has been added.

Claims 1-20 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. §112, second paragraph, as being indefinite, as well as under 35 U.S.C. §101 as lacking patentable utility. Additionally, claims 1 and 3 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) as being anticipated by Siana (WO 96/26691). In view of the foregoing amendments and following remarks, Applicants respectfully request reconsideration of these rejections.

Claim 1 has been amended by restricting the claimed subject matter to a device for extending only the penis, and deleting the word "permanently". Other editorial amendments have also been made to claim 1. Applicants submit that amended claim 1 sufficiently sets forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired, and has sufficient patentable utility.

Minor editorial amendments have been made to claims 3 and 8. Claim 15 has been amended by deleting the reference to the trademark "Velcro" and substituting the identification of "hook and loop fastener" in its place, as suggested by the Examiner.

Claim 1 has been further amended by incorporating the limitations as previously claimed in now cancelled claim 2. The Examiner indicated that amending claim 1 with the limitations of claim 2 would make this claim allowable. All remaining claims depend directly or indirectly from claim 1, and thus, as suggested by the Examiner, all claims are now in condition for allowance.

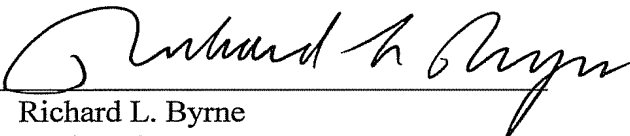

The title has been amended by deleting the word "permanently".
